Tennis Stars - Kean and Kael Shah

Brothers Kean and Kael Shah showed an aptitude for tennis early in their lives, were so encouraged by their doting parents. They both moved to Spain not just for academic studies but also to further their game. This dedication has paid off big. Kael used to play a lot of tournaments locally and did well which helped him. Kean also used to play a lot of tournaments around the country which allowed him achieve number one ranking in his age group. They represented Kenya 3 times for Africa Junior Championships giving them experience and opportunity to compete internationally. Kael used to play a lot of tournaments locally and did well which helped him. They represented Kenya in Davis Cup in Rwanda July 2023. Kael won Men's Singles at Kenya open 2023. They both won the men's doubles at the same tournament. Both have been in world ranking winning at least 4/5 international doubles titles each and going deep into singles draws in many different countries in the world.

Moving to Spain was a great decision for them and allowed them to to train with better players and coaches and exposed them a much higher level of tennis and really opened their eyes to the amount of work needed to really exceed.

Their future plans is to finish university while playing tennis at high level. They will also try to play professional tournaments in the winter and summer breaks and after university to go pro and be excited to start the new chapter remember

Today's dedication to your passion may become tomorrow's success story. Don't abandon what you love; let it be the compass guiding you to unforeseen opportunities. Keep honing your skills, for in the pursuit of your passions, you may find the sustenance that fuels your future. Never give up, for your talents are the seeds of your potential harvest!"

WHY DO WE PROSTRATE BEFORE PARENTS AND ELDERS?

Indians prostrate to their parents, elder, leader and noble souls by touching their feet. The elder in turn blesses us by placing his or her hand on or over our heads. Prostration is done daily, when we meet elders and particularly on important occasions like the beginning of a new task, birthdays, festivals etc.

In certain traditional circles, prostration is accompanied by abbivaadana which serves to introduce one-self, announce one's family and social stature.

WHY DO WE OFFER PROSTRATIONS?

Man stands on his feet. Touching the feet in prostration is a sign of respect for the age, maturity, nobility and divinity that our elders personify. It symbolizes our recognition of their selfless love for us and the sacrifices that they have done for our welfare. It is a way of humbly acknowledging the greatness of another. This tradition reflects the strong Family ties which has been one of India's enduring strengths.

The good wishes (sankalpa) and blessings (aashirvaada) of elders are highly valued in India.

We prostrate to seek them. Good thoughts create positive vibrations. Good wishes springing from a heart full of love, divinity and nobility have a tremendous strength. When we prostrate with humility and respect, we invoke the good wishes and blessings of elders which flow in the form of positive energy to envelop us. This is why the posture assumed whether it is in the standing or prone position, enables the entire body to receive the energy thus received.

The different forms of showing respect are:

- + Pratuthana - rising to welcome a person.
- + Namaskaara - paying homage in the form of namaste (article in the Oshwal Awaaz 59).
- + Upasangrahan - touching the feet of elders or teachers.
- + Shaashtaanga - prostrating fully with the feet, knees, stomach, chest, forehead and arms touching the ground in front of the elder.
- + Pratyabivaadana - returning a greeting.

Rules are prescribed in our scriptures as to who should prostrate to whom. Wealth, family name, age, moral strength and spiritual knowledge in ascending order of importance qualified men to receive respect.

This is why a king though the ruler of the land, would prostrate before a spiritual master. Epics like the Ramavana and Mahabharata have many stories highlighting this aspect.

This tradition thus creates an environment of mutual love and respect among people ensuring harmony in the family and society.

GREEN CORNER PLASTIC DISPOSAL AND RECYCLING

The Community is a believer in recycling of plastic and in line with it, we have setup a recycling point with Oshwal Youth League Nairobi near the generator room at Oshwal Centre where plastic can be deposited. We urge Members to make use of this and deposit their used but cleaned plastic. Together let's make a difference to the world.
